

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | | | |
|--|-----------|---|-----------|
| 1. WHAT IS HEALTH TECHNOLOGY ASSESSMENT? | 9 | | |
| 1.1. Definition and origins of Health Technology Assessment | 9 | 3.1.2. When HTA authority performs advisory tasks | 39 |
| 1.1.1. HTA main orientations and impact assessment | 13 | 3.1.3. Most common methodologies used in health technology assessment | 40 |
| 1.1.2. A tool to inform decision makers | 15 | | |
| 1.2. Governance: evidence is global, decision is local | 17 | 4. CHALLENGES TO HTA HARMONISATION IN EUROPE | 45 |
| 2. HEALTH TECHNOLOGY ASSESSMENT IN EUROPE | 23 | 4.1. The successful reference case of centralised regulatory approval process | 45 |
| 2.1. EU cooperation on HTA: how did we get there? | 23 | 4.2. A centralised European HTA: reality or chimera? | 45 |
| 2.1.1. EUnetHTA, from the project to the Network | 25 | 4.3. Potential future evolution of HTA cooperation at the EU level | 46 |
| 2.2. Main project results and potential challenges | 26 | 4.4. The importance of reaching an agreement on Health Economics and Outcome Research modelling | 50 |
| 2.3. HTA in the EU framework programme for research and innovation | 28 | 4.5. Mutual recognition process of Rapid Relative Effectiveness Assessment (REA) reports | 51 |
| 3. A CROSS-COUNTRY COMPARISON OF HTA AMONG EUROPEAN MEMBER STATES | 33 | | |
| 3.1.1. A comparison among avant-garde examples | 34 | POLICY CONCLUSIONS | 57 |