

KEP - Know Exchange Programme
CEI - Central European Initiative – Strengthening Energy Regulatory Authorities in the Western Balkans

1st training seminar – Rome, 26 January 2018

Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation premises

Piazzale della Farnesina, 1

Room Fagiolo 4th Floor

Title: market coupling fundamentals

Specific objective: to create a common background knowledge on institutional, regulatory and technical issues related to the market coupling process

9.00 – 9.30	Module 0 - Presentation of participants and overview of the project (I-Com)
9.30 – 10.30	Module 1 – Capacity allocation: institutional and regulatory aspects (ARERA)
10.30 – 11.00	break
11.00 – 12.00	Module 2 – Long term capacity allocation: state of art in EU and target countries 11.00 – 11.15 Serbia (TSO) 11.15 – 11.30 Albania (TSO) 11.30 – 11.45 Montenegro (TSO) 11.45 – 12.00 EU/Italy (TERNNA)
12.00 – 12.30	Q&A
12.30 – 13.30	Module 3 – Day Ahead capacity allocation mechanisms and market coupling models: the evolution of the EU framework [GME]
13.30 – 14.00	Light lunch – Room Ortona 4 th Floor
14.00 – 14.30	Q&A
14.30 – 15.30	Module 4 - Minimal standardization requirements for capacity allocation (long term and day ahead) and degree of freedom for regulatory and technical options <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Algorithm and products options [GME]• Role of the TSO in the Day-Ahead Market Coupling [TERNNA]
15.30 – 16.00	Q&A
16.00 – 16.15	Final communication and closing